WINE WORLD - NATURE - CERTIFICATE OF ORIGIN

D.O. Empordà Baix Empordà: Following the footsteps of Dom Perignon

In the south of Empordà, around Palamós we find a land of abundance of vineyards, varieties and depth of wines and territory. Sheltered from the north winds and always exposed to sea breezes, with diverse terrain, from clay to slate, it offers a multitude of walks through purely Mediterranean landscapes. We will be able to see the growth of the tree that is the very essence of alcoholic fermentation – the cork oak- and a symbol of its use in the region, to exploit its precious material: cork! And we will learn about its relationship with local use projects. If you prefer, you can also choose a walk along the seafront, and start delving into Dalí's relationship with the place as well.

The activity includes an easy walk through the immediate natural environment to one of the DO vineyards and a wine tasting and a small snack.
