D.O. Penedès: The millennial terroirs

Penedès is a symbol of a land of vineyards and wineries in abundance, surrounded by Mediterranean greens and a palette of geological ochres. This is one of the places where calcareous soils are best represented in Catalonia due to their extension and diversity, which also makes their products very varied and interesting, being also the land par excellence of the world of cavas and sparkling wines. Although well known for its whites well represented by the Xarel·lo varieties, you can also enjoy full-bodied and intense reds.

A space of contrasts; vineyards and dry crops, surrounded by patches of white pine groves or scrub, always with the imposing mountain of Montserrat in the background where the geological relief and cultural symbolism meet as an expression of identity.

The walks include getting to know various natural environments or the Montserrat massif itself with a tasting of wines and cavas with products from the region.
