PICNIC - NATURE - ECO-CHEF

Natural Eco-Picnic:

Tasting the landscape's essence

Discover the taste of the Mediterranean landscape. A meal based on wild plants in the middle of nature.

A meal made with ingredients from local organic farmers, wild plants picked at the moment and inspired by traditional recipes of each place, to taste and enjoy in a rustic setting in the middle of nature. During the previous walk, we collect the ingredients needed for the dishes.

A meal based on wild plants in the middle of nature, inspired by a selection of plants chosen by Evarist March, botanist at El Celler de Can Roca. A menu filled with beauty and health.
